Re: Davis Int'l LLC v. New Start Group Corp., (04-1482 & 04-1483 (GMS))

Dear Judge Sleet:

We represent Michael Chernoi in the above litigation. By letter dated July 7, 2008, plaintiffs transmitted to the Court a copy of a recent procedural decision entered in a litigation initiated in London, England by Mr. Chernoi against another defendant in this case, Oleg Deripaska. Although requesting that this Court stay its decision on the pending injunction motion to give their counsel time "to study the decision," plaintiffs' counsel apparently "studied" the decision sufficiently to be able to present a five-page analysis that mischaracterizes the decision in order to suggest some linkage between the English case and this case. In fact, the English case involves a private business dispute between Mr. Chernoi and Mr. Deripaska and there are no substantive or procedural overlaps between that case and the case pending in this court.

Plaintiffs have chosen not to bring an appropriate motion either in this Court or in England. Until such time as they do so, or unless directed by the Court, Mr. Chernoi does not intend to respond to any of plaintiffs' misstatements.

Very truly yours,

Brian E. Maas
